“Camping Out” on God’s Word

“This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then, you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.” (Joshua 1:8 ESV)

For the Christian, meditation is as simple as thinking deeply about God or pondering about something in His Word. The Holy Scriptures offer many opportunities to meditate. The devotional thought for today features Joshua 1:8, which urges us to turn God’s Word over and over in our minds throughout the day and evening so that we correctly learn how to apply it to our lives.

Meditation is like camping. Once you arrive at the campsite, set up a tent, and arrange the supplies, you can relax and rest. What do you do while resting? You may sit in a folding chair to watch the sunset and ponder about the beauty of God’s creation while the sun slowly sinks into the horizon. That’s an example of meditation—contemplating God’s handiwork! As you reflect on How Awesome He is, a Scripture may pop into your mind, like Psalm 8:3, that you can think about for the rest of the evening!
