Sing His Praises

Recently I saw a cartoon with fish singing, under water, of course. It's a cartoon and so we dismiss the silliness of such a thing. Who ever heard of fish singing? It does sound strange, doesn't it? It does, until you read Psalm 148:7, which says, "Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all ocean depths." In fact, Psalm 148 is a call to everything in God's creation to praise the LORD, such as: the sun, moon, stars, mountains, trees, birds, wild animals, lightning, hail, and snow. Personally, I do not recall hearing any of those things singing praises to the LORD. As you go through Psalm 148, you soon realize the point, which is, all things are invited to praise our LORD. The Psalmist says in Psalm 148:13, "Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted; his splendor is above the earth and the heavens." Nothing is excluded from this invitation to praise the LORD. Don't let yourself be the one who is left out of the praises!! Every day, make it a point to respond to the invitation to praise our God, our Creator, our Lord, and our Savior. Let's join all creation in the praise of our Almighty Loving God. "Praise the LORD!" (Psalm 148:1)
