Memorial Day is coming up, and it is a day of remembering those who gave their lives for our freedom. I can think of one individual who gave His life so that all of us could be free, and that is Jesus Christ.

In celebration of Memorial Day, I took the song America the Beautiful and changed the words. I'd like to share it with you. Love in Christ, Joe

Jesus, The Beautiful

How beautiful is Jesus Christ,
He gave His life for all.
From God above, God sent His love,

Christ bore our sins for all.

Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
Christ's blood has set us free.
Saved by grace, He took our place,
For you and yes, for me!

O suffering spiked hands and feet,
Daylight encompassed black.
The mocking crowds, the whip that beat

Upon His neck and back!

Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
God took our every scar,
Confirmed our soul in Christ's control,
God watches from afar!

O beautiful my Savior is,
By liberating fear.
His final word that God had heard,
His side pierced by the spear!

Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
Dear God, my heart is Thine.
Jesus' success, God's nobleness,
Jesus, Your pain divine!

How beautiful our Lord's precious gift,
He did it all for love.
The angels singing endlessly,
Our hearts are lifted up!
Hallelujah, Hallelujah!

Yes, saved by grace are we.
The Word is good, it's understood,
It's Christianity!

The crucifixion of Jesus is detailed in all four Gospels—Matthew 27, Mark 15, Luke 23, and John 19—highlighting His suffering, the mocking crowd, and His final words. Key passages include Jesus carrying His cross, being crucified between two criminals, and the sky turning dark. The event is presented as the fulfillment of prophecy, establishing atonement for sin.
