Noah's Ark

Built by God's design...

There was no rutter, no sail, and worse still, there was no paddling at all! Think about how scary that is.

Noah was building a massive vessel to survive a global storm, but he had zero control over it, or over where it went.

He couldn't steer it away from rocks. He couldn't turn it into the waves. He couldn't aim for dry land. He was completely at the mercy of the water.

The Ark was not designed for navigation; just for floating.

Noah's job was to to be the Passenger, not the Captain.

God was the Captain.

This might be a picture of your life right now.

You might be trying to put a steering wheel on a situation that God wants you to simply float through. Let go and LET GOD!
