A NEW SEASON

It's hard to believe the summer is already over and we are officially into the season of Autumn. Soon, we will be witnessing one of God's most spectacular transformations: the changing of the leaves. The deep greens of summer will soon become brilliant shades of yellow, red, and orange (my wife would say - amber, crimson, and vermillion). The season of Autumn invites us to pause and reflect on the beautiful rhythms of change that God has woven into creation. Nature serves as a vivid reminder that life is a series of appointed times. As Ecclesiastes 3:1 reminds us, "To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven." Just as the trees naturally and gracefully let go of their leaves, Autumn encourages us to reflect on what we need to surrender to the Lord. Change can often feel uncertain, but we can find great comfort in knowing that while the seasons shift, our Creator remains entirely unmovable. The prophet Isaiah reminds us of this truth in Isaiah 40:8, "The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever." Beyond the changing colors, Autumn is historically a time of harvest—a season dedicated to gathering the fruits of past labor and offering thanksgiving to God. It is a perfect opportunity to cultivate a heart of deep gratitude. When we look at our lives, our families, and our church body, we can clearly see the bountiful ways God has provided for us. Psalm 107:1 urges us, "Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever." Even as the days grow shorter and the earth prepares for winter's rest, our hearts can overflow with praise for His unyielding faithfulness to us.
As you drive past the colorful hillsides and enjoy the cooler days to come, allow the autumn landscape to draw you closer to our awesome Creator. Let the falling leaves remind you of the beauty of letting go, and let the crisp air fill you with renewed thanksgiving. God is holding you securely through every transition and change in life, preparing your heart for the new growth that lies ahead. Let's embrace this new season with joyful hearts, fully trusting in the One who makes everything beautiful in its time.
