The Reality of Never Enough

Human beings are seeking creatures. It's how God made us. Some seek one thing and some another, and the possibilities are seemingly endless.

Different interests drive our insatiable seeking. Some seek things that bring them nothing but trouble, hurt and destruction. Some seek things that are good that result in blessing and growth. Some seek things that are seemingly neither good nor bad, but that serve no real purpose unless you assign some kind of value, positively or negatively, to time wasting.

Ecclesiastes 1:8 says, …The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor is the ear filled with hearing.

Whatever we are seeking in this life, it might do us a favor to know that we will never find our ultimate fulfillment in anything in this life.

As we gaze upon wonder upon wonder in this world and as we gather knowledge and experiences, no matter how much we see or gather unto ourselves, we will never be satisfied.

The reason why is because we not made to be satisfied by the things of this world, but rather by God.

Psalm 16:11 says, You will make known to me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; In Your right hand there are pleasures forever.

We seek the path that leads to satisfaction, often times being clueless of what actually brings us satisfaction. It's only in the pursuit of God that we find true life.

Someday, in His presence we will experience both the "fullness of joy," and "pleasures forever." But in our pursuit of God in this life, we can already have a sampling of the joy and pleasure that He provides to those who follow Jesus.

Use your time wisely. Psalm 34:8 says, O taste and see that the Lord is good…

Want some fulfillment in your life? Pursue the only One who can give it!

For our good and His glory,

Wes LeFlore
